I am an independent design professional specialized in web media. I have been working with web since 1996 and consider myself to be pretty experienced, both as a designer and user. I know a lot about business in general and web business in particular.

The combination of design and business skills and being a good communicator is my biggest strength. I love to have tight deadlines and difficult tasks to solve. I consider myself to be a good cooperater, open minded and always ready for a challenge.

Recommendations:

Fredrik Norman Manager Burson-Marsteller Oslo

«Erik Sand has been a key contributor in several high-profile projects for some of Burson-Marsteller's most important clients in Norway.»

He consistently delivers work of the highest international standard. One of Erik's best qualities is that he combines the roles of a designer and a strategic advisor. On top of that, he's professional and always a lot of fun. Highly recommended. Oslo, 19. mai 2009

Thordur Arnason, Director Technology, Creuna AS

«Erik is a creative, hard working and very reliable person»

In all projects and situations I've worked with him I've been extremely pleased with his professional attitude, capacity and creative strength. I can wholeheartedly recommend Erik. Oslo, 15 september 2008
